PLATT COLLECTION FOR HBF TEXTILES

When luxury residential designer Campion Platt and HBF Textiles get together, it's something like the intersection of Park Avenue and Main Street. Or perhaps make that Elm Street, given the green emphasis of the Campion Platt collection's six patterns made from various combinations of organic cotton, recycled polyester, linen, and sustainable bamboo fibers.

Velvet Ground is made from crushed bamboo. Mountain Tartan chenille is a small geometric in cotton and bamboo-fiber rayon. Rock Ledge and Woodland Terrace are polyester wovens. A linen-polyester, Forest Light is tightly woven for heavy-duty contract use. The toughest of them all, at 99,000 Wyzenbeek double rubs, Rough Terrain bamboo chenille can stand up to practically anything, despite a soft hand. 828-328-2064; hbf textiles.com. circle 418 ➤

Author! Author!

He's been called a lot of things. Icon. Visionary. Maverick. With The Complete Kagan—Vladimir Kagan: A Lifetime of Avant-Garde Design, a celebration of his work and life published by the Pointed Leaf Press, he adds author to his list of credentials. Interior Design marked the occasion in Los Angeles by cohosting a cocktail reception at Ralph Pucci International's Pacific Design Center showroom, where pieces from Kagan's 63-year career shared space with paintings and drawings by Peter Åström.
