

INTERIOR DESIGN[®]

AUGUST
2009

making art

Tom Polucci and Natalie Banaszak for Mannington Commercial

design Spectrum.

standout These HOK designers translate spectrograph readings into varied stripes for not only nylon carpet but also premium rubber surfacing. 800-241-2262; manningtoncommercial.com. circle 440

Markus Jehs and Jürgen Laub for Davis Furniture

design Tune.

standout Modular conference tables morph from open to closed configurations, with bases of solid steel and tops veneered in zebrawood, walnut, or oak. 336-889-2009; davisfurniture.com. circle 441

Campion Platt
for HBF Textiles

design Rock Ledge.

standout This designer's namesake collection includes a pattern that translates rugged natural forms into a refined polyester woven in staggered lines, offered in six colorways. 828-328-2064; hbf textiles.com. circle 442

Mark Goetz
for Segis

design Alternate.

standout Slats take on a whole new look in this beech armchair with each element efficiently engineered to minimize material waste. 404-680-5500; segis-usa.com. circle 443