IT'S A SMALL WORLD

Dedon's outdoor furniture is a direct result of global synergy. The durable and eco-friendly furniture fiber and its curving edge design combine German ingenuity with the high-quality craftsmanship of traditional weavers of the island of Cebu in the Philippines, where the furniture is made. Fresh for summer, the eight-piece Phoenix collection's muscular forms are a dynamic mix of concave and convex curves. Arm chair, $1,671 and lounge chair, $2,407, through JANUS et Cie, 221 E. 59th St, NYC, (212) 752-1117 or www.dedon.de.

INTERIOR MOTIVES

Design world darling Camplon Platt, the former model turned architect and designer, partners with DPS Sporting Club Development to craft environmentally-friendly interiors for their Green Homes at The Greenbrier, a sustainably-planned residential development at The Greenbrier Sporting Club in White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia. Each home within the new green community is built and maintained through Model Green Home Building Guidelines set by the NAHB. Each is also outfitted with Energy Star appliances and constructed with locally-sourced materials to minimize the project's carbon footprint. www.greenbriergreenhomes.com.

STONE FOX

Hand-chiseled from silver travertine, Stone Forest C50 sink brings a zen-like feel to bathroom design. The unique minimalist shape allows the natural material to take center stage and each one-of-a-kind piece is free of the toxic laminates so often applied to hand-carved objects. 24" model, $850 and 36" model, $1,120, through Bath N' Bagnio, 365 Central Ave. Scarsdale, (914) 723-1010 or www.stoneforest.com.
